Roleplaying

Roleplaying, like smashing doors open, picking locks, providing medical care, or bartering, may cause your GM to ask you to roll 1d6 with one of your Stats.

Add your Roleplay Bonus from the relevant Stat!

When Roleplaying in combat, spend 1 AP to roll 1d3. You can spend more AP to add extra dice to these rolls (1 AP per 1d3).

Action Points (AP)

Spend AP to do Actions. Describe them however you want! Ranged actions cannot shoot through inaccessible Zones.

All players have 6 max AP, which are restored at the start of the Player Phase. You can track your AP with a d6!

PIT

PIT stands for Points in this Tier. Each Stat has 6 tiers.

Players start with 3 PIT in each Stat's first tier.

Rolling for Criticals

Roll 1d6 when using Actions that deal damage or heal.

If you roll a 6, add double your level when determining how much damage you deal/heal.

Leveling Up

Players have 10 Health and 4 Stat Points (SP) per level.

To put SP in a tier, you need 6 PIT in the prior tier. Putting 1 SP in a tier unlocks everything in that tier.

Items

Spend 1 AP to use a Fast Item.
Spend 2 AP to use a Normal Item.
Spend 3 AP to use a Slow Item.
Spend 4+ AP to use Special items.
